WHO'S WHO? in Virginia Politics

You, your family, friends, and neighbors can decide the outcome of the November 2017 election. Will we be a state with fairness for immigrants, a clean environment, high quality jobs, and a bright future for all Virginians?
Your vote will make the difference!

NEW VIRGINIA MAJORITY EDUCATION FUND builds power in working-class communities of color across the Commonwealth. We organize for racial and economic justice through large-scale political education, mobilization and advocacy. For more information,

VIRGINIA STATEWIDE ELECTED POSITIONS

POSITION

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR YOU

GOVERNOR

Heads the state executive branch. Elected for one term every four years and cannot serve more than one term.

-  Drafts state budget that keeps critical services intact, like Medicaid, Head Start, and other services.
-  Can call a special session of the state legislature to address urgent issues that reflect their agenda.
-  Ensures every eligible Virginian has access to the ballot box.
-  Appoints nearly 4,000 positions that determine how laws are enforced and how money is spent.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Attorney General serves as the state's primary lawyer. Elected to a four-year term.

-  Decides whether to bring lawsuits against the federal gov't on issues critical to communities we serve, like DACA and climate justice.
-  Interprets and implements the Commonwealth's role regarding the civil rights of all Virginians, including DACA recipients, people of color, and LGBTQ communities.
-  Helps interpret and implement laws passed by legislature, like photo identification laws.

VA HOUSE OF DELEGATES

The state is divided into 100 districts, and each district elects one representative. House of Delegates are elected every two years.

-  Decides whether to enact state laws concerning corporate welfare, a living wage, penalties for defaulting on student loans, and more.
-  Decides district boundaries for state and federal seats.
